

A common woodwind instrument of the Renaissance, also called the “serpent” because of its shape.

Default alignment: mouthpiece to chief. No proper coloration.

Source: Nelson's Perpetual Loose-Leaf Encyclopedia. Artist unknown.

Cornetto, Bass 18.67