

A fire, shown as multiple tongues of flame conjoined into a single mass.

Default orientation: tongues extending to chief. Proper coloration: alternating tongues of gules and Or.

This depiction was previously ruled unregistrable on the September 2019 Cover Letter, but that prohibition was later called into question by the discovery of period examples with separated licks of flame.

Source: Pennsic Bored-Artist Collection. Artist: Stephanie Fahey.

Flame (1) • 6.56