

A tree with distinctive red berries, formerly grown for its fruit, and once revered as a protection against evil spirits.

Default alignment: stem to base. Proper coloration: brown wood, red berries.

Source: The Flora of the Liverpool District.

Artist unknown. (Figure 201.)

Rowan Berries, Cluster of (1) 7.364