
A cross with round bites cut out of its ends.

Default orientation: crosswise. No proper coloration.

This charge has not yet been registered and its final blazon will be determined by Wreath.

Adapted from images of the reverse side of a Fench Liard coin minted in Chambéry in 1601 during the reign of Henry IV.

Cross Énchancré (2) ❧ 5.93