

Threefold field division. One tincture must have good contrast with its neighbors.

Similar to “per pall arrondi,” sometimes blazoned “tierced in gyrons arrondi,” or in German “Schneckendreipass” (snail-three-parted).

Source: Siebmacher’s Wappenbuch of 1605. Artist: Johann Siebmacher.

Gyronny of 3 Arrondi (1) 🦉 3.195