

A young sheep.

A paschal lamb is one intended for religious sacrifice. Used as a symbol of Christ. Distinguished by a halo and a cross banner over its shoulder.

Default posture: passant. Proper coloration: argent, haloed Or, bearing a banner argent marked with a cross gules.

Source: A Complete Guide to Heraldry. Artist: Graham Johnston.

Lamb, Paschal 12.515