

A ceremonial cap worn by Christian bishops. Western-style mitres have pointed peaks and lappets dangling from the back, while Eastern-style mitres have a closed rounded dome.

Default orientation: upright. No proper coloration.

Because of its exclusive use by bishops, this charge is not registrable within the Society.

Source: WappenWiki. Artist: Joakim Spuller.