

The musimon is said to be a mythical cross between a sheep and a goat with four horns.
Its appearance probably represents ancient breeds of sheep which occasionally produce four horns.

No default posture. No proper coloration.

Artist: Máel Brigte.

Musimon Statant 12.786