

A great cat of Asia, also blazoned a “Bengal tiger,” as opposed to the heraldic “tyger.” Considered a step from core practice (SFCP).

No default posture. No proper coloration, but stripes may be blazoned separately, e.g. “gules marked sable.”

Source: Aja'ib al-Makhluqat wa Ghara'ib al-Mawjudat.
(Leiden MS Or. 8907. Folio 227r.)

Artist unknown. Adapted by Máel Brigte.

Tiger, Natural, Passant (3) 12.943