

A pane of glass enclosed in a supporting frame that covers a hole in a wall.

No default orientation. No proper coloration.

The central portion may be specifically blazoned as “a window tincture glazed tincture.”

Source: Siebmacher’s Wappenbuch of 1605.

Artist: Johann Siebmacher. (Arms of Stuben, page 117.)